

House Photography Competition

‘What a wonderful world’

We would like you to capture moments of your life during Lockdown. The photos can be taken with your phone or camera. Everyone is having a different experience of this time, but whatever your circumstances there are moments of beauty and kindness to be found if you look. We would like you to capture the special moments you find in this time. Whatever it is that is making you smile, keeping you going, keeping others happy, making you stop and look again, capture it.

Rules

- The winner from each house will have their photograph professionally printed.
- Every entry counts towards house competition totals.
- One entry per student.
- If there are other people in your photograph, make sure you ask permission as entries may be tweeted or published in the WORKS newsletter.
- Deadline for entries are Friday 12th June.
- Entries will form an exhibition in school.

Email your photograph with your name and house in the subject box to Homeactivities@Minster.notts.sch.uk

Some moments of beauty and kindness in life in lockdown

Good luck!
