

Religious Studies Journey

Succeeding Together

The learning of Religious Studies prepares students for life as global citizens encouraging respect for all, global learning, British values and community cohesion which is significant for their progression through life.

"Whatever you do, work at it with your whole heart, as though you were working for the Lord." Colossians 3:23